1. A Deposit is only repayable by the issuing branch of the Bank upon surrender of the Certificate of Deposit Receipt.
2. A Deposit may only be transferred, negotiated and assigned by the Depositor to the Bank. All purported holders or assignees of the Deposit agree that the Bank’s right of set off will have priority over any of their claims.

Within a reasonable time after the commencement of the original deposit period, the Bank shall deliver to or mail by ordinary post to the Depositor at the Depositor’s last known address, a Certificate of Deposit Receipt stipulating the amount, interest rate, deposit term, maturity value and other material terms.
4. 5. The Bank may at any time vary the terms and conditions of the Deposit from time to time by way of written notice to the Depositor which may be communicated by any appropriate means/media at the Bank’s option, including but not limited to publication on the Bank’s website, or alternatively sending by mail, messenger, fax or electronic mail to the mailing address, physical address, fax number or e-mail address (as the case may be) of the Depositor as noted in the Bank’s records as at the date of such notice. The variation shall take effect seven (7) days after the date of the notice or on such other date as may be specified in the notice.
6. Where maturing Deposits are not to remain for additional periods, payment thereof shall be by draft or as otherwise instructed. Upon mailing of such remittance, the Bank shall be discharged from all responsibility or obligations in respect of the Deposit and the Bank shall be relieved of any liability for any loss which may be suffered by the Depositor in respect of theft, forgery, non-receipt of mail or other consequences which may arise by reason of mailing such remittance, provided however that any principal or interest remaining undrawn on such draft or bank cheque by any one whosoever shall be held in trust by the Bank for and on behalf of the Depositor without any liability to pay further interest thereon.

8. Where the Depositor is two or more persons as individuals and it is stated on the Certificate of Deposit Receipt that the Deposit is ‘joint with right of survivorship’, it is agreed that after receipt by the Bank of satisfactory evidence of the death of any of them, any remittances, to be made by the Bank shall be made in favour of the survivors or survivor and any credits to be made by the Bank shall, notwithstanding that an account is indicated on the Certificate of Deposit Receipt, be made into such account at the branch named on the Certificate of Deposit as the survivors or survivor may specify in writing.
9. The Bank is authorized to comply with the provisions of the law, regulation or order now or hereafter in force which purport to impose on the Bank a duty to take or refrain from taking any action in respect of the Deposit or interest accrued thereon.
10. Withdrawals prior to maturity are prohibited. Notwithstanding this, the Bank reserves the right to require thirty (30) days’ notice of such withdrawal and to levy a substantial penalty if it waives this condition. All such withdrawals, when permitted, must be requested in writing by all parties to the Certificate of Deposit.

Early Withdrawal Penalty: If the Bank grants the Depositor’s request to withdraw all or a portion of the Deposit before the maturity date, the Bank shall levy the greater of the interest accrued or CI$150 (or currency equivalent), plus 1% of the principal and provide notification to the Depositor as provided herein.
